

The Teen Counseling Project is dedicated to funding and maintaining mental health services in each of the three West Sonoma County High Schools.

Teen Counseling Project Programs 2010-2011

Analy

- Supports MFT outreach counselors 4 days/week
- MFT Internship Program, 2010-11 first full year, Matt Shubin, liaison
- 9th Grade Health Speakers Series - 94 presentations total - for all 3 schools

El Molino

- Ron Ruiz, former Soc Sci Dept Chair, 9th Grade Health Speakers Series
- MFT Internship Program, 2010-11 first full year
- Supports Av Lefkowitz, MFT, in his 27th year as outreach counselor

Laguna

- Supports Mark Johnson, MFT
- Entire student body attends Health Speaker Series
- Finances Chris Van Stone, LCSW, girls' groups and one-to-one counseling

♥ 2011 Valentine's Day Appeal

Fundraising goal $25,000

Visit us online:

www.analyhighschool.org/teencounselingproject

or call:

Julie Smith 829-1250 Wendy Evans 829-8721

Please give generously.

All donations are tax-deductible.

Please make checks payable to: TCP

Parent volunteers needed!

Teen Counseling Project Leadership Committee

"TCP supports counseling services that help many students elevate from a painful daily struggle to a high level of success in their school life and home."
- Keller McDonald, Superintendent of WSCUHSD

Teen Counseling Project
Analy High School
6950 Analy Ave.
Sebastopol, CA 95472

Non-Profit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit #37
Sebastopol, CA

Return Service Requested

Teen Counseling Project Valentine's Day Appeal